

BURGHOUND.COM®

The Ultimate Burgundy Reference

Issue 76

October 2019

Maison Samuel Billaud

2018 Chablis "Montmains"

Burgundy, France

Tasting note: A much more floral-inflected though riper nose speaks of spice, poached pear and somewhat less obvious Chablis character. Happily there is better Chablis character on the palate of the medium-bodied flavors that also possess very good volume along with a fine bead of minerality that really comes up on the youthfully austere and bitter lemon-suffused finale. (89-91 points)