2015 Morgon les Charmes
Beaujolais, France

The Wine Advocate #232 – August 2017

Score 89 points

The 2015 Morgon les Charmes has a clean and precise dark cherry and redcurrant-scented bouquet that you might describe as "neat 'n tidy." The palate is well balanced with supple ripe red and black fruit that gently caress the mouth but there is a line of acidity that maintains the freshness. It feels a little closed on the finish, therefore I would give this another couple of years in bottle to unwind.
